

SEARCH CONSULTANTS IN REAL ESTATE, CONSTRUCTION, AND ARCHITECTURE

Under the direction of founder Chris Hingle, Christopher Frederick has helped leading real estate, construction, and architecture firms find top executive talent since 1985. The business has evolved with the industry and now offers the largest digital talent network of its kind. This powerful tool, coupled with Hingle's deep industry knowledge, allows Christopher Frederick to reach promising candidates with the precision and personal touch other recruiting firms simply cannot match.

A UNIQUE WAY TO RECRUIT EXECUTIVE TALENT

Christopher Frederick's proprietary talent database is the gold standard for recruiting executive talent in real estate, construction, and architecture. This premium database:

- comprises the industry's largest number of highly qualified and gainfully employed mid- to C-level professionals—over 750,000 in the nation.
- classifies industries into more market segments than any other digital network, allowing targeting of specific qualifications and skill sets.
- offers a more effective and efficient way to recruit than posting jobs.
- makes direct contact with targeted candidates for delivery of customized recruiting campaigns.
- powers a digital network that is constantly updated and expanded by a team of researchers using advanced technology.
- provides a proven marketing platform for the promotion of candidates.
